This worksheet highlights ways to foster the predictability of text.

Story Title: Escaping the Cold

Show the pictures to the child and say “These pictures tell a story called Escaping the Cold. It’s about some rabbits facing a problem.”

While the child is looking at the pictures, say “I am going to say a sentence and you have to complete it.”

“On a snowy day, some rabbits were _____.”

(The child should offer a response such as “cold, freezing cold, feeling cold, etc.” If s/he cannot, then supply one of the examples and then have child repeat the word(s).)

Then continue, saying “Now complete this idea.”

“They hopped to a tree that had a _____.”

(The child should offer a response such as “hole, opening, place to stay, etc.” If s/he cannot, then supply one of the examples and then have child repeat the word(s).)

Then continue, saying “Now complete this idea.”

“They went inside the hole and felt _____.”

(The child should offer a response such as “warm, not cold, nice, etc.” If s/he cannot, then supply one of the examples and then have child repeat the word(s).)
